PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME
FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS ON DEFENDANTS

NOW COME the Plaintiffs, BRANDON SMIETANA (“Smietana”) and SKYCOIN GLOBAL FOUNDATION LIMITED, a Singapore Company, and SYMBOLIC ANALYTICS, INC., a Delaware Corporation (“SA”) (collectively “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorney, respectfully move this Honorable Court for entry of an Order granting an enlargement of time of six (6) months in which to effectuate service of process upon Defendants, Andrew Young, Morgan Peck, Bryan Clark, Steven Leonard and Harrison Gevirtz, and in support states as follows:

1. Plaintiffs filed their Complaint at Law on February 8, 2022.
2. Defendant, Bradford Stephens was served and counsel has appeared on his behalf.
3. Defendant, Ryan Eagle, was served and counsel has appeared on his behalf.
4. Defendant, Far Ahead Marketing, was served and counsel has appeared on his behalf.

5. Defendant, Joel Wayne Cuthriell was served March 12, 2022 and a default motion is forthcoming.

6. Defendant, Aaron Kuntsman, was served March 16, 2022, and a default motion is forthcoming.

7. Defendant, Tristan Greene, was served May 9, 2022 and a default motion is forthcoming.

8. Defendant, Catherine Byerly, was served March 11, 2022 and counsel has appeared on her behalf.

9. Service has yet to be effectuated upon Defendant, Andrew Young, who Plaintiffs believe also uses an alias of Adam C. Young. (See Exhibit “A”) despite multiple attempts at service, an Alias Summons has to be re-issued and service effectuated.

10. Service has yet to be effectuated upon Defendant, Morgan Peck, who Plaintiffs believe resides in New York, and service is in the process of being effectuated (See Group Exhibit “B”). An Alias will be re-issued as success of process server’s attempts dictates.

11. Service has yet to be effectuated upon Defendant, Bryan Clark, who, upon information and belief, resides in either Baja California, Mexico or Tijuana, Mexico. A Subpoena was sent to Defendant, Bryan Clark’s employer for his address, but counsel for his employer has objected to said Subpoena (See Exhibit “C”). As Defendant, Bryan Clark, is believed to reside out of the country, and plaintiff is diligently attempting to locate Defendant to effectuate service of process on him, additional time is needed.

12. Service has yet to be effectuated upon Defendant, Steven Leonard, who, upon information from his Uncle, resides in Singapore. (See Exhibit “D”). As Defendant, Steven Leonard, is believed to reside out of the country, plaintiff is diligently attempting to locate Defendant to effectuate service of process on him.

13. Service has yet to be effectuated upon Defendant, Harrison Gevirtz, despite multiple attempts. An Alias Summons is to be re-issued at what Plaintiffs believe is his current address. (See Exhibit “E”).

14. The Plaintiffs request a 6 month enlargement of time to locate and serve Defendants, Andrew Young, Morgan Peck, Bryan Clark, Steven Leonard and Harrison Gevirtz.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, pray that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting an additional six (6) months enlargement of time in which to effectuate service of process upon Defendants, Andrew Young, Morgan Peck, Bryan Clark, Steven Leonard and Harrison Gevirtz, or for whatever other relief this Honorable Court deems appropriate.

DATED: June 8, 2022

Respectfully submitted,

14 BRYAN CLARK, ET AL

15 DEFENDANTS.

CASE NO. 22-CV-00708

THIRD PARTY GRAPHITE GROWTH, INC'S OBJECTIONS TO SUBPOENA ISSUED BY PLAINTIFF

16
17 Graphite Growth, Inc. ("Graphite") submits the following objections to the Subpoena
18 served by Plaintiff on Graphite ("Subpoena").

19 OBJECTIONS

20 1. Graphite asserts these Objections with respect to each and every document request
21 contained in the Subpoena.

22 2. Graphite objects to the extent the subpoena seeks to have documents produced in Illinois,
23 well outside the 100-mile limitation set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45.

24 3. Graphite objects that the subpoena was not signed or dated.

25 4. Graphite objects that the subpoena did not provide adequate time for compliance.

26 5. Graphite generally objects to the Subpoena in its entirety and to each individual
27 document request included therein, to the extent that the categories of documents in each and 28

1 every request set forth in the Subpoena are vague, ambiguous and overbroad and as such
2 Graphite is not able to respond.

3 6. Graphite generally objects to the Subpoena in its entirety and to each individual document
4 request included therein, on the ground that compliance with the Subpoena would impose an
5 undue burden on Graphite because the scope of the Subpoena is overbroad.

6 7. Graphite generally objects to the Subpoena in its entirety and to each individual
7 document request included therein, on the ground that the Subpoena requests documents the 8 production of which would require Graphite disclose private, trade secret, proprietary and
9 confidential information. The subpoena is also defective in that it does not indicate that prior 10 notice was given to the employee whose records are sought and as is required under 11 California law.

12 8. Graphite generally objects to the Subpoena in its entirety and to each individual
13 document request included therein, on the ground that the Subpoena requests materials that 14 likely have already been produced by the parties in the above-captioned matter.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For Steven Leonard, his SSN last reports him in 2020 at the address we attempted:

4324 85TH AVENUE CIR	Household Listing	01/01/2015 - 11/30/2020
E	Experian	06/19/2017 - 10/08/2020
PARRISH, FL 34219-1904	Experian Gateway	06/19/2017 - 10/08/2020

With no addresses being reported after November 2020, it would make sense that he is out of the country. I did not find any utilities or vehicles registered to him.

What is the last known address for Adam Young?

05/09/2022 04:46 PM This is a gated community. Gevirtz is not listed on the call box. After gaining entrance, there was no answer and no vehicles. There is a barking dog inside.

05/11/2022 08:42 AM No answer and no dogs. There is a Ring bell and no response

05/14/2022 04:09 PM No answer. There is white Tesla Sedan in the driveway. Unfortunately, it was backed up against the garage door, so I could not get a license plate number.
